NMLS Federal Registry Fees – Request for Comment

October 15, 2010

The Conference of State Bank Supervisors has put out for public comment the proposed fees to be assessed by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System & Registry in connection with the registration of federally regulated mortgage loan originators.

A copy of the letter explaining the proposed fees and the process for submitting comments can be found here.

The deadline for submitting comments is November 12, 2010. Comments may be submitted by email to comments@stateregulatoryregistry.org.

We will continue to provide information to you regarding federal registration of mortgage loan originators.
